Beginning on January 1, 2022, as permitted by regulations adopted by the Securities and Exchange Commission, paper copies of the Fund's shareholder reports like this one will no longer be sent by mail, unless you specifically request paper copies of the reports. Instead, the reports will be made available on the Fund's website www.manorfunds.com, and you will be notified by mail each time a report is posted and provided with a website link to access the report.

If you already elected to receive shareholder reports electronically, you will not be affected by this change, and you need not take any action. You may elect to receive shareholder reports and other communication from the Fund electronically by contacting your financial intermediary (such as a broker-dealer or bank) or, if you are a direct investor, by following the instructions included with paper Fund documents that have been mailed to you.

SUMMARY SECTION

The Manor Fund

Investment Objective

The Manor Fund seeks long-term capital appreciation and a moderate level of income.

Fees and Expenses of the Fund

This table describes the fees and expenses you may pay if you buy and hold shares of the Manor Fund.

Shareholder Fees

(Fees paid directly from your investment)

	Manor Fund
Maximum Sales Charge (Load) Imposed on Purchases (as a percentage of offering price)	None
Maximum Deferred Sales Charge (Load)	None
Maximum Sales Charge (Load) Imposed on Reinvested Dividends	None
Redemption Fee	None

Annual Fund Operating Expenses

(Expenses that you pay each year as a percentage of the value of your investment)

	Manor Fund
Management Expenses	0.75 %
Other Expenses	0.50 %
Total Annual Fund Operating Expenses	1.25 %

Example

This example is intended to help you compare the cost of investing in shares of the Manor Fund with the cost of investing in other mutual funds. The example assumes that you invest $10,000 in the Manor Fund for the time periods indicated and then redeem all of your shares at the end of those periods. The example also assumes that your investment has a 5% return each year and that the Manor Fund's operating expenses remain the same. Although your actual costs may be higher or lower, based on these assumptions your costs would be:

	1 Year	3 Years	5 Years	10 Years
The Manor Fund	$ 128	$ 405	$709	$ 1,615

Portfolio Turnover

The Manor Fund pays transaction costs, such as commissions, when it buys and sells securities (or "turns over" its portfolio). A higher portfolio turnover rate may indicate higher transaction costs and may result in higher taxes when Manor Fund shares are held in a taxable account. These costs, which are not reflected in annual fund operating expenses or in the example, affect the Manor Fund's performance. During the most recent fiscal year, the portfolio turnover rate for the Manor Fund was 0.00%.

Principal Investment Strategies

The Manor Fund invests primarily in the common stock of large U.S. corporations with an average market capitalization generally over $50 billion, when the advisor believes the shares are priced attractively relative to the earnings and financial strength of the company. The Fund generally holds individual investments for three to five years, but occasionally, securities may be sold within 12 months of purchase if circumstances of a particular company, industry, or the general market should change.

Principal Risks

An investor could lose money investing in the Manor Fund. The Manor Fund is intended for long-term investors who can accept fluctuations in value and other risks associated with seeking the investment objectives of each Fund.

Risks in the Manor Fund include:

- the possibility of a general decline in the stock market,
- the possibility that a shift in economic conditions will adversely impact large corporations,
- or that the Fund manager will be unsuccessful in identifying attractive investments.

In addition to the risks outlined above, the Manor Fund carries the risk that Daniel A. Morris, the portfolio manager will be unable to perform his duties due to death or disability.

In addition to the risks associated with the investment strategy of the Fund, an investor is subject to risk from general market fluctuations, interest rate shifts, credit risk, and the effect of inflation.

Market Risk

In the event of a general market decline, the value of the Fund could decline. The values of investments may change, and possibly decrease, perhaps severely, in response to fluctuations in the stock market generally.

Interest Rate Risk

If interest rates increase the value of portfolio investments could decline. The potential for fluctuations in bond prices is primarily due to changes in interest rates.

Credit Risk

Credit risk could impact the value of specific stock or bond investments, or an entire industry sector, if investors become concerned about the ability of creditors to continue debt service on an ongoing basis. Credit risk is the chance that the issuer of a bond will default on its promise to pay interest and or principal at maturity.

Inflation Risk

Inflation is the impact of rising prices over time. It has the effect of reducing the future value of financial assets due to decreased purchasing power. The impact of inflation, and investors' expectation of future inflation, can impact the current value of portfolio investments, resulting in lower stock prices.

Performance Information

The bar chart below shows how the Manor Fund's investment results vary from year to year. The table below shows how the Manor Fund's average annual total returns compare over time to those of a broad-based securities market index. This information provides some indication of the risks of investing in the Manor Fund. The Manor Fund's past performance (before and after taxes) is not necessarily an indication of its future performance.

The Fund's year-to-date total return through March 31, 2023 was 1.53%. During the period shown in the bar chart above, the lowest return for a calendar quarter for the Manor Fund was -25.06% during the 1st Quarter 2020. The highest return was 19.42% during the 2nd Quarter 2020.

Average Annual Total Returns
For the Periods ended December 31, 2022

	1 Year	5 Year	10 Year

	1 Year	3 Years	5 Years	10 Years
The Growth Fund	$ 102	$ 320	$ 562	$1,279

Portfolio Turnover

The Growth Fund pays transaction costs, such as commissions, when it buys and sells securities (or "turns over" its portfolio). A higher portfolio turnover rate may indicate higher transaction costs and may result in higher taxes when Growth Fund shares are held in a taxable account. These costs, which are not reflected in annual fund operating expenses or in the example, affect the Growth Fund's performance. During the most recent fiscal year, the portfolio turnover rate for the Growth Fund was 6.05%.

Principal Investment Strategies

The Growth Fund invests primarily in the common stock of large U.S. corporations with an average market capitalization generally over $7.5 billion, when the advisor believes the shares are priced attractively relative to the growth potential of company earnings. The Growth Fund generally holds individual investments for three to five years, but occasionally, securities may be sold within 12 months of purchase if circumstances of a particular company, industry, or the general market should change.

Principal Risks

An investor could lose money investing in the Growth Fund. The Growth Fund is intended for long-term investors who can accept fluctuations in value and other risks associated with seeking the investment objectives of each Fund.

Risks in the Growth Fund include:

- the possibility of a general decline in the stock market,
- the possibility that a shift in economic conditions will adversely impact companies with strong growth rates,
- or that the Fund manager will be unsuccessful in identifying attractive investments.

In addition to the risks outlined above, the Growth Fund carries the risk that Daniel A. Morris, the portfolio manager will be unable to perform his duties due to death or disability.

In addition to the risks associated with the investment strategy of the Fund, an investor is subject to risk from general market fluctuations, interest rate shifts, credit risk, the effect of inflation, and technology sector risk.

Market Risk

In the event of a general market decline, the value of the Fund could decline. The values of investments may change, and possibly decrease, perhaps severely, in response to fluctuations in the stock market generally.

Interest Rate Risk

If interest rates increase the value of portfolio investments could decline. The potential for fluctuations in bond prices is primarily due to changes in interest rates.

Inflation Risk

Inflation is the impact of rising prices over time. It has the effect of reducing the future value of financial assets due to decreased purchasing power. The impact of inflation, and investors' expectation of future inflation, can impact the current value of portfolio investments, resulting in lower stock prices.

Technology Sector Risk

The fund may, at times invest a substantial portion of the portfolio in companies in the technology sector. Companies in this sector are subject to the risk of rapidly changing technological developments and highly competitive industry participants. As a result, many companies can have variable earnings and may not pay dividends, leading to higher volatility as investor expectations shift.

Performance Information

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES AND NON-PRINCIPAL RISKS

Principal Investment Strategies

The following sections explain the principal investment strategies and policies that each Fund uses in pursuit of its objective. The board of trustees of the Funds, which oversee the managers of the Funds, may change investment strategies or policies in the interest of shareholders without a shareholder vote, unless those strategies or policies are designated as fundamental.

The Manor Fund invests primarily in the common stock of large corporations with an average market capitalization generally greater than $50 billion or more. The Fund may also invest in the preferred stock or the corporate fixed income securities of these companies that are convertible into common stock. The primary consideration in the selection of stock investments for the Manor Fund is the current price of the shares relative to the earnings and potential growth of earnings for each company. Under normal market conditions, the Fund should be fully invested. The Fund generally holds individual investments for three to five years, but occasionally, securities may be sold within 12 months of purchase if circumstances of a particular company, industry, or the general market should change.

The Growth Fund invests primarily in the common stock of large corporations with an average market capitalization generally greater than $7.5 billion. The Fund generally invests in companies that have strong growth in earnings or revenues, the potential to maintain above average growth, and a reasonable valuation relative to the growth potential. Under normal market conditions, the Fund should be fully invested. The Fund generally holds individual investments for three to five years. In seeking to achieve its investment objective, the Fund ordinarily invests on a long-term basis, but occasionally, securities may be sold within 12 months of purchase if circumstances of a particular company, industry, or the general market should change.

The Bond Fund invests primarily in income producing securities issued by the U.S. Government or Agencies of the U.S. Government, such as U.S. Treasury bills, notes and bonds, or securities issued by GNMA, FNMA and FHLB. The Bond Fund generally maintains an average maturity of three to seven years, depending upon the interest rate and economic environment. The Bond Fund generally maintains an overall credit rating of A or better for portfolio securities, as measured by Moody's or S&P. The Fund may also invest in short term securities issued at a discount to face value such as U.S. Treasury bills. The Fund will generally hold investments to maturity; however, positions may be liquidated to shift the interest rate sensitivity of the portfolio in response to changing market and economic conditions. The portfolio manager will actively manage the average maturity of the portfolio by reducing the maturity of portfolio securities in anticipation of rising interest rate environments and extending the maturity of portfolio securities in anticipation of falling interest rate environments.

In addition to the risks associated with the investment strategy of the Fund, an investor is subject to risk from general market fluctuations, interest rate shifts, credit risk, and the effect of inflation.

Market Risk

In the event of a general market decline, the value of the Fund could decline. The values of investments may change, and possibly decrease, perhaps severely, in response to fluctuations in the stock market generally.

Interest Rate Risk

If interest rates increase the value of portfolio investments could decline. The potential for fluctuations in bond prices is primarily due to changes in interest rates.

Credit Risk

Credit risk could impact the value of specific stock or bond investments, or an entire industry sector, if investors become concerned about the ability of creditors to continue debt service on an ongoing basis.

Credit risk is the chance that the issuer of a bond will default on its promise to pay interest and or principal at maturity.

Inflation Risk

Inflation is the impact of rising prices over time. It has the effect of reducing the future value of financial assets due to decreased purchasing power. The impact of inflation, and investors' expectation of future inflation, can impact the current value of portfolio investments, resulting in lower stock prices.

Equity Issuer Risk.

The risk that the market price of common stocks and other equity securities may go up or down, sometimes rapidly or unpredictably, including due to factors affecting equity securities markets generally, particular industries represented in those markets, or the issuer itself.

Issuer Risk.

The risk that the value of a security may decline for reasons directly related to the issuer such as management performance, financial leverage and reduced demand for the issuer's goods and services.

Management Risk

The Fund is actively managed and depends heavily on the Advisor's judgment about markets, interest rates or the attractiveness, relative values, liquidity, or potential appreciation of particular investments made for the Fund's portfolio. The Fund could experience losses if these judgments prove to be incorrect. Additionally, legislative, regulatory, or tax developments may adversely affect management of the Fund and, therefore, the ability of the Fund to achieve its investment objective.

MANAGEMENT OF THE FUNDS

The Funds offer only one class of shares for each Fund.

Smithbridge Asset Management, Inc. 6 Hillman Drive, Chadds Ford, PA a Delaware Corporation, acts as sole investment advisor to the Funds under an investment advisory agreement approved by the Board of Trustees at a meeting held on February 15, 2023. Mr. Daniel A. Morris is Co-Chief Investment Officer of the advisor and is also President of the Fund. As of December 31, 2022, Smithbridge Asset Management, Inc. managed $453 million in assets under management.

Each of the Funds, under an Investment Advisory Agreement between the respective Fund and the Advisor, pays the Advisor a fee. During the most recent fiscal year, Morris Capital Advisors, LLC, as the previous Advisor to the Funds, received compensation of 0.75%, 0.75% and 0.50% of the daily net assets of the Manor Fund, the Growth Fund, and the Bond Fund. The fee is computed and payable at the end of each month. Under the advisory agreement effective January 1, 2023 the annual percentage of average daily net assets payable for the Advisor's investment management fee will be 0.75% for the Manor Fund and the Growth Fund, and 0.50% for the Bond Fund

Daniel A. Morris has been the Portfolio Manager of the Manor Fund since its inception in 1995 and has been the Portfolio Manager of the Manor Growth Fund and the Manor Bond Fund since the inception of both funds in 1999. He is Co-Chief Investment Officer of Smithbridge Asset Management, Inc. Previously he was President and Chief Investment Officer of Morris Capital Advisors, LLC the previous advisor to the Funds. He is also President and Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Manor Investment Funds

The statement of additional information for the Funds, which is incorporated by reference into this prospectus, provides additional information about the compensation of the portfolio manager, other accounts managed by the portfolio manager and the ownership of Fund securities by the portfolio manager.

INVESTING WITH MANOR INVESTMENT FUNDS

Purchasing Shares

The offering price of shares is the net asset value per share next determined after receipt of the purchase order by the Fund and is computed in the manner described under the caption “PRICING OF SHARES” in this Prospectus. The Fund reserves the right at its sole discretion to terminate the offering of its shares made by this Prospectus at any time and to reject purchase applications when, in the judgment of the management such termination or rejection is in the best interests of the Fund. The Fund will maintain an account for each shareholder.

The Initial purchase of shares of the Funds may be made by application to the Fund, or through an Authorized Institution. To purchase shares, mail a check payable to Manor Investment Funds, complete the application form included in this Prospectus, and mail to Manor Investment Funds, 8000 Town Centre Drive, Suite 400, Broadview Heights, OH 44147. For additional information contact the Fund at 800-663-4851. Shareholders may also authorize the Fund to automatically debit their bank account to purchase shares by completing the necessary information on their account application. Shareholders may also purchase shares of any Fund by directing a transfer from another Fund by telephone. Shares can also be purchased by automatic payroll deduction, or by automatic deduction from an account that you specify.

You may also purchase shares of the Funds through certain Authorized Institutions. In order to make an initial investment in a Fund through an Authorized Institution you must furnish to your Authorized Institution the information in the Account Application. Customers of certain Authorized Institutions will normally give their purchase instructions to the Authorized Institution, and the Authorized Institution will, in turn, place purchase orders with the Funds. Authorized Institutions will set times by which purchase orders and payments must be received by them from their customers.

If shares of a Fund are held in a “street name” account (i.e., accounts maintained and serviced by your Authorized Institution), all recordkeeping, transaction processing and payments of distributions relating to your account will be performed by your Authorized Institution, and not by a Fund and its transfer agent. Since the Funds will have no record of your transactions, you should contact your Authorized Institution to purchase, redeem or exchange shares, to make changes in or give instructions concerning your account or to obtain information about your account. The transfer of shares in a “street name” account to an account with another Authorized Institution involves special procedures and may require you to obtain historical purchase information about the shares in the account from your Authorized Institution. If your Authorized Institution’s relationship with the Funds is terminated, and you do not transfer your account to another Authorized Institution, the Funds reserve the right to redeem your shares. The Funds will not be responsible for any loss in an investor’s account or tax liability resulting from a redemption.

Certain Authorized Institutions may provide the following services in connection with their customers’ investments in the Funds:

Personal and account maintenance services

- Provide facilities to answer inquiries and respond to correspondence,
- Act as liaison between the Authorized Institution’s customers and the Funds,
- Assist customers in completing application forms, selecting dividend and other options, and similar services.

Shareholder administration services

- Act, directly or through an agent, as the sole shareholder of record,
- Maintain account records for customers,
- Process orders to purchase, redeem and exchange shares for customers, and
- Process payments for customers.

Certain Authorized Institutions and other financial intermediaries may be authorized to accept, on behalf of the Funds, purchase, redemption, and exchange orders placed by or on behalf of their customers to designate other financial intermediaries to accept such orders. In these cases:

A Fund will be deemed to have received an order that is in proper form when the order is accepted by an Authorized Institution or other financial intermediary on a business day, and the order will be priced at the Fund's NAV per share next determined after such acceptance.

Authorized Institutions and other financial intermediaries are responsible for transmitting accepted orders to the Funds within the time period agreed upon by them.

Authorized Institutions that invest in shares on behalf of their customers may charge fees directly to their customer accounts in connection with their purchase or redemption of Fund shares. You should contact your Authorized Institution for information regarding such charges, as these fees, if any, may affect the return such customers realize with respect to their investments.

The Funds' Advisor may make payments [or provide services] to Authorized Institutions and other financial intermediaries ("Intermediaries") to promote the sale, distribution and/or servicing of shares of the Funds. These payments are made out of the Advisor's own assets, and are not an additional charge to the Funds. The payments are in addition to any shareholder service fees that may be charged to the Funds. Such payments are intended to compensate Intermediaries for, among other things: marketing shares of the Funds, which may consist of payments relating to the Funds' inclusion on preferred or recommended fund lists or in certain sales programs sponsored by the Intermediaries; access to the Intermediaries' registered representatives or salespersons, including at conferences and other meetings; assistance in training and education of personnel; marketing support; and/or other specified services intended to assist in the distribution and marketing of the Funds. The payments may also, to the extent permitted by applicable regulations, contribute to various non-cash and cash incentive arrangements to promote the sale of shares, as well as sponsor various educational programs, sales contests and/or promotions. The payments by the Advisor may also compensate Intermediaries for sub-accounting, sub-transfer agency, administrative and/or shareholder processing services. These additional payments may exceed amounts earned on these assets by the Advisor and/or their affiliates for the performance of these or similar services. The amount of these additional payments is normally not expected to exceed 0.40% (annualized) of the amount sold or invested through the Intermediaries. Please refer to the "Payments to Intermediaries" section of the SAI for more information about these payments and services.

The payments made by the Advisor and/or its affiliates and the services provided by an Intermediary may differ for different Intermediaries. The presence of these payments, receipt of these services and the basis on which an Intermediary compensates its registered representatives or salespersons may create an incentive for a particular Intermediary, registered representative or salesperson to highlight, feature or recommend Funds based, at least in part, on the level of compensation paid. You should contact your Authorized Institution or other Intermediary for more information about the payments it receives and any potential conflicts of interest.

Redeeming Shares

The Fund will redeem all or any portion of the total amount of the shares of any shareholder upon request in writing or by phone. Proper endorsements guaranteed either by a national bank or a member firm of the New York Stock Exchange may be required for requests in writing. Redemptions and transfers between Funds can also be initiated by telephone instructions or in writing.

Shares are redeemed at the net asset value per share next determined after notice is received by the Fund. The proceeds received by the shareholder may be more or less than the cost of such shares, depending upon the net asset value per share at the time of redemption; the difference should be treated by the shareholder as a capital gain or loss, as the case may be, for federal income tax purposes.

Payment by the Fund will ordinarily be made by check or by automated clearing house transfer within seven days after tender. The Fund may suspend the right of redemption or postpone the date of payment if: The New York Stock Exchange is closed for other than customary weekend or holiday closings, or when trading on the New York Stock Exchange is restricted as determined by the Securities and Exchange Commission, or when the Securities and Exchange Commission has determined that an emergency exists, making disposal of Fund securities or valuation of net assets not reasonably practicable. To redeem shares, send your written request to Manor Investment Funds, 8000 Town Centre Drive, Suite 400, Broadview Heights, OH 44147, or call the Fund at 800-663-4851 to request a redemption by phone.

You should contact your Authorized Institution to discuss redemptions and redemption proceeds. Certain Authorized Institutions are authorized to accept redemption requests on behalf of the Funds. A Fund may transfer redemption proceeds to an account with your Authorized Institution. In the alternative, your Authorized Institution may request that redemption proceeds be sent to you by check or wire (if the wire instructions are designated in the current records of the transfer agent). Redemptions may be requested by your Authorized Institution in writing, by telephone or through an electronic trading platform.

Exchanging Shares

Shareholders can also exchange shares among any of the three fund series of the Manor funds group by simultaneously selling the shares of one fund and using the proceeds to purchase shares of another fund. Exchange transactions can be initiated by written request to Manor Investment Funds, 8000 Town Centre Drive, Suite 400, Broadview Heights, OH 44147, or by calling the Fund at 800-663-4851.

Frequent Purchases and Redemptions

Frequent purchase and redemption transactions of the Fund, sometimes referred to as “market timing,” create risk for the shareholder initiating the transactions and for other shareholders. Shareholders who participate in this short-term trading philosophy run the risk of realizing substantial losses from ill-timed transactions, forfeiting the opportunity to participate in long-term market trends, and losing the benefit of favorable taxation on long-term investment holdings. Active trading of this sort undermines the long-term investment philosophy of the Fund. Other shareholders can experience lower investment returns if active trading creates higher portfolio turnover, thus generating short-term gains and losses that must be distributed as Fund dividends.

The Board of Trustees has adopted a policy to deter excessive trading by Fund shareholders. The Board will review any account that generates more than three buy/sell transactions in a quarter or redeems substantially all of the holdings in an account within 30 days of purchase. The Board also reserves the right to reject any investment in the Fund if it is deemed that the size of the purchase or expected duration may adversely impact existing shareholders. The board will proactively seek to close the accounts of shareholders when they are deemed to be disruptive to the long-term investment goals of the Funds.

Pricing of Shares

The net asset value of the shares for each Fund is determined as of the close of trading (presently 4:00 p.m.) on the New York Stock Exchange on each business day the Exchange is open. The Exchange is closed on most national holidays. The net asset value is not calculated if the New York Stock Exchange is closed for trading. The price is determined by dividing the value of its securities, plus any cash and other assets less all liabilities, by the number of shares outstanding. The market value of securities listed on a national exchange is determined to be the last recent sales price on such exchange. Listed securities that have not recently traded and over-the-counter securities are valued at the last bid price in such market. Short-term paper (debt obligations that mature in less than 60 days) are valued at amortized cost which approximates market value. Other assets are valued at fair value as determined in good faith by the Board of Trustees.

Other Information You Should Know

In addition to the rights expressly stated elsewhere in this prospectus, Manor Investment Funds reserves the right, without notice, to (1) alter, add, or discontinue any conditions of purchase (including eligibility requirements), redemption, exchange, conversion, service, or privilege at any time; (2) accept initial purchases by telephone; (3) freeze any account and/or suspend account services if Manor Investment Funds has received reasonable notice of a dispute regarding the assets in an account, including notice of a dispute between the registered or beneficial account owners, or if we reasonably believe a fraudulent transaction may occur or has occurred; (4) temporarily freeze any account and/or suspend account services upon initial notification to Manor Investment Funds of the death of the shareholder until Manor Investment Funds receives required documentation in good order; (5) alter, impose, discontinue, or waive any redemption fee, account service fee, or other fees charged to a group of shareholders; and (6) redeem an account or suspend account privileges, without the owner's permission to do so, in cases of threatening conduct or activity Manor Investment Funds believes to be suspicious, fraudulent, or illegal. Changes may affect any or all investors. These actions will be taken when, at the sole discretion of Manor Investment Funds management, we reasonably believe they are deemed to be in the best interest of a fund.

DISTRIBUTIONS AND TAXES

Dividends and Capital Gain Distributions

The Fund will automatically retain and reinvest dividends and capital gain distributions and purchase additional shares for the shareholder at net asset value as of the close of business on the distribution date. A shareholder may at any time by letter or forms supplied by the Fund direct the payment of dividend and/or capital gains distributions, if any, to such shareholder in cash.

Taxes

The Fund will endeavor to qualify annually for and elect tax treatment applicable to a regulated investment company under Subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code (the “Code”).

Distribution of any net long-term capital gains realized by the Fund will be taxable to the shareholder as long-term capital gains, regardless of the length of time Fund shares have been held by the investor. All income realized by the Fund including short-term capital gains, will be taxable to the shareholder as ordinary income. Dividends from net income will be made annually or more frequently at the discretion of the Board of Trustees. Dividends received shortly after purchase of shares by an investor will have the effect of reducing the per share net asset value of his shares by the amount of such dividends or distributions and, although in effect a return of capital, are subject to federal income taxes. An exchange of the Fund’s shares for shares of another Fund will be treated as a sale and any gain or loss on the transaction may impact your federal income tax.

The Fund is required by Federal law to withhold 31% of reportable payments (which may include dividends, capital gains, distributions and redemptions) paid to shareholders who have not complied with IRS regulations. In order to avoid this withholding requirement, you must certify on the application form supplied by the Fund that your Social Security or Taxpayer Identification Number provided is correct and that you are not currently subject to back-up withholding, or that you are exempt from back-up withholding.

Shareholder Services Plan

The Funds have adopted a Shareholder Services Plan (the “Services Plan”), pursuant to which the Funds will pay an annual service fee at the rate of 0.25% of each Fund’s average daily net assets. The Services Plan is intended to support shareholder liaison services, such as personal shareholder servicing and maintenance of shareholder accounts, including responding to customer inquiries and providing requested information on investments. The fee may also be used to pay financial advisors and correspondent firms for shareholder servicing.

FINANCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

The financial highlights tables on the following pages are intended to help you understand each Fund's financial performance for the past 5 years. Certain information reflects financial results for a single Fund share. The total returns in the table represent the rate that an investor would have earned, or lost, on an investment in the Fund (assuming reinvestment of all dividends and distributions). This information has been audited by Sanville & Company, the Funds' independent registered public accounting firm. The auditor's report along with the Funds' financial statements, are included in the annual report, which is available upon request.

PRIVACY POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Manor Investment Funds, (the “Funds”), believes that our clients’ personal information is private, and the employees of the Funds hold themselves to the highest standards to ensure that clients can trust our commitment to this policy.

The Funds limit the collection and use of personal information to that which is necessary to administer our clients’ accounts, to provide customer services and/or to fulfill legal and regulatory requirements. We collect this information about clients from your applications, forms, and from your transactions with us.

The Funds do not share personal information about clients or former clients to any outside third party unless we are required by law and/or regulatory procedures, or receive your prior written consent.

The Funds disclose nonpublic information about our clients to financial service providers, such as securities broker-dealers executing security transactions, or transfer agents authorized to maintain client accounts.

The Funds restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you only to those employees who need to know that information to provide products or services to you. We maintain physical and procedural safeguards that comply with federal standards to guard your nonpublic personal information.

The Funds will continue to review our efforts to ensure client privacy and make every effort to keep your personal information accurate, current and confidential.

GLOSSARY OF INVESTMENT TERMS

Capital Gains Distribution: Payment to mutual fund shareholders of gains realized on securities that a fund has sold at a profit, minus any realized losses.

Cash Investments: Cash deposits, short-term bank deposits, and money market instruments that include U.S. Treasury bills and notes, bank certificates of deposit (CD's), repurchase agreements, commercial paper, and bankers' acceptances.

Common Stock: A security representing ownership rights in a corporation. A stockholder is entitled to share in the profits of the company, some of which may be paid out as dividends.

Dividend Distribution: Payment to mutual fund shareholders of income from interest or dividends generated by the investment securities in the portfolio of the Fund,

Expense Ratio: The percentage of the average net assets of the Fund used to pay operating expenses during a fiscal year. The expense ratio includes management expenses, such as advisory fees, account maintenance, reporting, accounting, legal, and other administrative expenses, and any 12b-1 distribution fees. It does not include the transaction costs of buying and selling portfolio securities.

Inception Date: The date on which the assets of a fund (or one of the share classes) are first invested in accordance with the investment objective of the fund. For funds with a subscription period, the inception date is the day after that period ends. Investment performance is measured from the inception date.

Market Capitalization: An indicator of the size of a company in which a fund invests.

Mutual Fund: An investment company that pools the money of many people and invests it in a variety of securities in an effort to achieve a specific objective over time.

Principal: The face value of a debt instrument or the amount of money put into an investment.

Securities: Stocks, bonds, money market instruments, and other investment vehicles.

Total Return: A percentage change, over a specified time period, in the net asset value of a mutual fund, assuming the reinvestment of all distributions of dividends and capital gains.

Volatility: The fluctuations in value of a mutual fund or other security. A high measure of volatility for a fund indicates that the fluctuations in returns will be higher for the fund.
